

Gerard Keegans Famine Diary: Journey to a New World

1847... Gerard Keegan, a schoolteacher, and his young bride left County Sligo to travel aboard the now infamous coffin ships to Canada. In his diary Gerard Keegan charts the reality of famine and emigration--relatives seeking his advice, the walk from Sligo to Dublin, fever on board the ship, a fight with the first mate, a catch of fish, storms, sighting whales, the passengers first sight of land--and the bittersweet fate of those who survived to reach the promised New World.

The rate of deaths in the Famines worst year was 20 percent out of 214,000 in Dublin as Gerard Keegans Famine Diary: Journey to the New World (1991), Gerard Keegans Famine Diary: Journey to a New World by Mangan, James J.
