

Curious Epitaphs

Amongst the most curious of the many peculiar epitaphs which are to be found in the quiet resting-places of the departed are those placed to the memory of parish clerks and sextons. We have noted at various times, and at different places, many strange specimens, a few of which we think will entertain our readers. In the churchyard of Crayford is a grave-stone bearing the following inscription: Here lieth the body OF Peter Isnell, Thirty years clerk of this Parish. He lived respected as a pious and mirthful man, and died on his way to church to assist at a wedding, On the 31st day of March, 1811, Aged 70 years. The inhabitants of Crayford have raised this stone to his cheerful memory, and as a tribute to his long and faithful services.

The peculiarity of the inscription, instead of suppressing inquiry, invariably raises curiosity respecting it: Near this place was deposited, on the 23rd April, 1815, Editorial Reviews.
