Matthew 6 is the sixth chapter of the Gospel of Matthew in the New Testament. This chapter contains the middle portion of the Sermon on the Mount. It includes the Lords Prayer. The first part, in Matthew 6:1-18, deals with the outward and inward expression of piety, referring to almsgiving, private prayer and fasting. Jesus endorses the standard teachings that these acts are important. Filial piety is one of the bedrock values of Chinese society. The Bible tells us: Honor your father and your mother, as the Lord Chinese culture and Christianity have the same emphasis on filial piety, but there are some major differences. This is the standard of Christian piety. . Resource CategoriesJobs piety and life of bliss - A man in the land of Uz was named Job.
