

The Enchanted April (Penguin Modern Classics)

A notice in The Times addressed to Those who Appreciate Wistaria and Sunshine advertises a small mediaeval Italian Castle on the shores of the Mediterranean to be let furnished for the month of April. Four very different women take up the offer, escaping dreary London for the sunshine of Italy. Among the party are Mrs Wilkins and Mrs Arthuthnot, both fleeing unappreciative husbands; beautiful Lady Caroline, sick of being grabbed by lovestruck men; and the imperious Mrs Fisher, who spends her time remembering the bearded great men she knew in her Victorian childhood. By the end of their holiday, all the women will fall completely under the spell of Italy in this funny, insightful and very charming novel.
