Winner of the 2010 Miles Franklin Literary Award and the 2012 German International Deutscher Krimipreis. At the close of a long day, Inspector Stephen Villani stands in the bathroom of a luxury apartment high above the city. In the glass bath, a young woman lies dead, a panic button within reach. It is his identity, his calling, his touchstone. But now, over a few sweltering summer days, as fires burn across the state and his superiors and colleagues scheme and jostle, he finds all the certainties of his life are crumbling. Truth is an extraordinary novel about a man, a family, a city. It is about violence, murder, love, corruption, honour and deceit. And it is about truth. Canberra Times Temple writes superbly with great visual acuity and moral intelligence. He can twist a lifetime of loss or a careers-worth of camaraderie around a few elliptical exchanges of police business; and his spare, terse prose is lightened with images full of a quirky, unselfconscious poetry Adelaide Advertiser Temple is Australia's premier crime writer because his skill is words. His characters are convincingly established and his observations of Melbourne's manners, milieus and mores are spot on...as soon as I put it down I wanted to read it again. Herald Sun Temple's writing has never been more precise or telegraphic...Truth is both confronting and electrifying. It is Temple's best book. Age
